Biznet, in Collaboration with PMI, Holds Biznet Blood Donation 2017

Jakarta, 22 August 2017 – Biznet is collaborating with the Indonesian Red Cross (PMI) in holding Biznet's annual Blood Donation event on 22 August 2017 at Biznet head office, MidPlaza 2, 15th floor, Jl. Jend. Sudirman Kav 10-11, Central Jakarta. The event is one of Biznet's annual CSR programs as part of company's commitment to help others who are in need, especially those who are unfortunate.

"Biznet is committed to continue giving positive contribution to the environment, especially to those who are unfortunate, and this commitment is shown by this blood donation event, which has been our routine agenda, and it has been conducted every year for the past couple of years. We have been building a very good partnership with PMI who gives us their support to continue conducting this blood donation event," said Adi Kusma, President Director Biznet.

Just like the previous years, Biznet blood donation event is open for public, and many people are participating including participants from employees of other companies located near Biznet office, and also Biznet employees. Every year, more than 150 people participated and they all have the same objective, which is to help other who are in need and give positive contributions to the community.

Henceforth, Biznet hopes that Biznet blood donation event can always be conducted as part of the company's Corporate Social Responsibility program. "Biznet is committed to continue conducting this blood donation activity, as well as other similar CSR programs, because for us, helping each other is part our responsibility as a local company and as part of the Republic of Indonesia," said Adi.
